

Affiliate Program Restrictions

As an affiliate of Cupid Media, it is important that you understand the marketing restrictions we have in place for the affiliate program. These are designed not just to protect us and our customers but also to create a fair environment for all affiliates in the program.

Failure to adhere to these restrictions may lead to your commissions being cancelled and affiliate account banned.

Promotional Methods

1. No Direct Linking from Paid Advertising

If you are using paid advertising (PPC, POF ads etc) of any type, you can not send the user directly to our sites. A landing page or website, owned by you, must be used.

2. No Facebook Advertising

We do not allow affiliates to promote our offers through paid Facebook Advertising.

3. No Incentivized Traffic

Users you refer to Cupid Media can not be given incentives to convert including, but not limited to, cash or monetary rewards, loyalty points or gifts.

4. No Adult Traffic

We do not allow traffic from any sites that are of an adult or overtly sexual nature including, but not limited to; pornographic sites, adult video sites, "hook up" or adult dating sites and sites that promote adult-orientated products or services.

5. Restricted Keywords for Paid Advertising

If you are using paid advertising, for example Google AdWords, you may not bid on our restricted keyword list (see the bottom of this document for the full list) or use them in your advertising copy. The list includes our brand names and website addresses. Variations and misspellings are also prohibited. If possible, the restricted keywords should be used as negative keywords.

6. Restricted Keywords for Domains

You may not use restricted keywords (see the bottom of this document for the full list), variations or misspellings in your base domain name. For example; thaicupid.com, thaicupidreview.com, thaicupid.at

This includes registering social media pages e.g. facebook.com/thaicupid and other web properties that you do not own and control yourself e.g. thaicupid.wordpress.com, youtube.com/user/thaicupid

7. No Pop Up / Pop Under Traffic

We do not allow affiliates to promote our sites through pop ups or pop under banner advertisements, also commonly known as PPV and bought through companies like Traffic Vance and Lead Impact.

8. No Adware / Spyware / Toolbar Traffic

Affiliates must not use any adware software, browser helper object or toolbar to promote our offers.

9. No Illegal Content

You may not place our affiliate links on any site that promotes illegal content or infringes on the legal rights of others.

10. No SMS/MMS Traffic

We do not allow our sites to be promoted by SMS or MMS methods.

11. No Classifieds or Chat Room Traffic

You may not post your affiliate links in classified sites (Gumtree, Craigslist) or in chat rooms that you do not own.

12. No Cookie Stuffing / Cookie Dropping

You may not use cookie stuffing or cookie dropping techniques. A cookie may only be placed when a user manually clicks on a link, on a website that you own, and goes to our site.

Other Restrictions

13. No Framing

You may not frame our sites inside another site for any purpose.

14. No Unauthorized Creatives

You may not use custom creatives (banners, gifs, flash animations) without the express permission of the Cupid Media Affiliate team.

You can not use member photos or member profile information to promote our offers.

15. No Misleading or Inaccurate Claims

You can not use inaccurate or misleading statements or claims when promoting our affiliate offers. Your advertising materials, including imagery should be in line with the Cupid Media brand.
